About

With 20 years of experience in diverse design disciplines, I have developed expertise in delivering human-centered design solutions across a wide range of industries. My work includes collaborating with clients from film production and emerging music artists to Fortune 500 companies. I specialize in design-driven problem-solving, utilizing storytelling and strategic design to address complex business challenges. I have partnered with leading design consulting firms to help C-suite executives leverage design thinking to drive innovation, improve business outcomes, and lead organizational change.
